A previous report contained information that an authorized agent of Neuhausen, former German consulgeneral and now advisor to the Yugoslav Government on economic affairs, contacted Ministerial Bergemann, a high-renking official in the Federal Ministry of Transportation. The following/information, obtained from a functionary fadditional of the Communist Farty of Austria, was supplied by another source:

- 1. The Soviet IS has reliable information that Ernst von Neuhausen owns a villa at the Topcider in Belgrade and is the first economic advisor to Tito. Tito is said to have complete confidence in Neuhausen.
- 2. The following personal data are known to the Soviet IS:

Ernst von Neuhausen was a personal friend of Goering's. Although he was sentenced, at a not identified time in Sofia, to four years imprisonment on charges of fraud he was appointed German Consul General in Belgrade in 1935. During the war he was named German Plenipotentiary for Economy in occupied Serbia (1943 to 1944) but was later charged with numerous offences by the Gestapo. After the end of the war he was extradicted to Yugo-slavia and in 1947 was sentenced to 20 years of hard labor by a people's court in Belgrade.
